

2019

Full Marks : 20

Time : As in the Programme

The figures in the right hand margin indicate marks.

[10×2]

1. How English Romantic poetry was a reaction against the neo-classical poetry of the earlier era?
2. How does Blake critiques public appearance of charity in the poem “The Holy Thursday”?
3. How is the poem “Lines Composed a Few Miles Above Tintern Abbey” by William Wordsworth a revelation of his continuously evolving relationship with Nature starting from boyhood?
4. In “Ode on Melancholy” Keats presents that joy and pain are inseparable and to experience joy fully we must experience sadness or melancholy. Explain.
5. Comment on Wordsworth’s views on the language of poetry.
6. Comment on Shelley’s claim that “Poets are the unacknowledged legislations of the world”.